Dear Friends,

The sun is shining and spring is definitely here! During Lent, there is a great sense of expectation and hope, even though there are many difficult days on the path to the cross, before the joy of the Resurrection. This hope is mirrored outside, in the wonder of God's creation, as we leave late winter and move towards the joy of spring, to the joy of Easter Sunday, the greatest day of the year. I hope that the weather improves and that you all get time to enjoy the beauty of God's creation.

We extend our deepest sympathies to the Noonan family, following the death of Evelyn Noonan. Her funeral, a service of thanksgiving for her life, was held in Newcastle Church on Wednesday 20th March. We keep Dennis, Jacky and Alan and all of Evelyn's family and friends in our prayers.

We also extend our sympathies to the family of Neville Allison. Neville's funeral was held in St. Brigid's Church, Stillorgan, on March 23rd. We keep his family in our prayers.

We also extend our deepest sympathy to Jane Smith, on the death of her brother in law Robert.

Our youth clubs took part in the St. Patrick's Day parade in Newtownmountkenedy! My sincere thanks to everyone who put so much time into making our fantastic float and all the children who took part. It was a wonderful to be part of the parade and they even won best float!

Our prayer course continues each Wednesday evening through Lent, at 8pm in the parish centre. All are very welcome!

On Saturday 22nd March we had the great pleasure of hosting the Dublin and Glendalough Church's Ministry of Healing Quiet Day, in the parish centre in Newcastle. My sincere thanks to Lydia Monds for leading us for our quiet day, focusing on Psalm 23 and to Jeanne Salter and all the committee for organising it all.

Wednesday evening youth guitar lessons are proving to be a great success and you can still join in! Sincere thanks to Mark, the children love it!

It's that time of year again! A new play has been written, rehearsals are taking place! Our theatre supper is on in the parish centre on Saturday evening, 26th April, with a matinee on Sunday afternoon, 27th April. Sincere thanks to Karen and to everyone involved! It will be great fun!!

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who give of their time so generously for our parishes, to lead worship, to facilitate parish groups and clubs, choir, volunteers for flowers, cleaning, reading, helping to supervise children's activities, Friday coffee mornings, providing tea and coffee after church services, Wednesday morning stay and play, everyone who helps at events, gets involved in whatever way, to our vestry members and to everyone who comes along to support for any and all occasions, it is greatly appreciated! Thank you!

Calary News

MUSIC IN CALARY

Music in Calary will open its 2025 season with the “Seven Last Words of Christ” by Joseph Haydn. Sokol Koka, who has previously played in Calary, approached us with a suggestion of playing this piece which Haydn wrote and was originally played in Cadiz on Good Friday in 1786.

Haydn subsequently adapted it for string quartet in 1787. Sokol proposed playing it in Calary on Maundy Thursday 17 th April as it is appropriate to play it over Easter.

We have decided to commence the 2025 season earlier than normal with this fantastic work being played by the Arteo Quartet.

The concert will begin at 8pm. Free parking.

To book tickets or for further information, please email derekneilson11@gmail.com or phone (01) 2818118.

Tickets are €18 or €15 for concessions and may be paid for by cash, cheque or card at the door.

Music in Calary would again like to thank Wicklow County Council for their support.

PRAYER FOR LENT

Dear Jesus,

During this season of Lent, let me remember all that you have done for me.

Help me to reflect upon the ultimate sacrifice and pain that you went through for us. As I make a few of my own sacrifices, help me to stay strong and committed to this Lenten journey and use my efforts as an opportunity to deepen my relationship with you. In moments where I struggle, remind me of the incomparable sacrifice and struggles that you endured. Guide my heart and mind to stay focused on your love and glory.

In Jesus' name, I pray. Amen.

Rowan / Mountain Ash

Caorthann

Sorbus acuparia

Rowan adds colour to woodland throughout Ireland, especially in the hills where it will grow at a high altitude even on rocky ground: its other common name is mountain ash.

The creamy flowers ripen into scarlet berries which colour early in the season and provide food for thrushes through the winter.

A mistle thrush will defend a rowan tree or holly as its territory, not for nesting, but through the winter as its feeding territory.

Rowan is an attractive garden tree: it likes well drained sites but will thrive in most soils.

Simnel Cake

Ingredients

250g mixed dried fruit	1 orange zested and juiced
500g pack marzipan	250g pack butter softened
200g light brown soft sugar	4 eggs plus 1 beaten to glaze
175g plain flour	100g ground almonds
1 tsp baking powder	1 lemon zested
2 tsp mixed spice	1 tsp vanilla extract
100g glacé cherries halved	3 tbsp apricot jam

Method

- Put the mixed dried fruit in a bowl with the orange juice and zest and 2 tbsp water. Heat gently in a pan, stirring now and then until the liquid has been absorbed and leave to cool.
- Heat oven to 150C/130C fan. Roll out a third of the marzipan and use the base of a deep 20cm cake tin as a template to cut out a circle. Wrap any offcuts and the remaining two-thirds of marzipan and set aside for later. Butter and line the cake tin with a double layer of parchment. Beat the butter and sugar together until creamy. Add the eggs, flour, almonds, baking powder, lemon zest, mixed spice and vanilla and mix until well combined. Mix in the cooled soaked dried fruit and fold in the cherries.
- Put half the cake mixture into the tin. Top with the disc of marzipan, then the remaining cake mixture, and level the top with a spatula. Bake for 2 hrs. Check it's cooked by inserting a skewer to the centre of the cake, if any wet mixture clings to the skewer, return to the oven for another 10 mins, then check again. Cool in the tin for 15 mins, then turn out onto a wire rack and leave to cool completely.
- Brush the top of the cake with apricot jam. Roll out half of the remaining marzipan and use the base of the cake as a template to cut out another disc. Place it on top of the cake and crimp the edges, if you like. Roll the remaining marzipan into 11 equal-sized balls for the apostles. Brush the marzipan with beaten egg and arrange the apostles in a circle on top around the outside. Put under a hot grill for a minute or two until just starting to caramelise. Leave to cool. Will keep for up to a week in a sealed tin.

The Son Rises- The Blind Will Truly See

The sun rises above the western view
And paints a stunning picture framed a golden hue.

Across the sky it shows its warmth and light
Illuminating the beauty of creation, wings of eagles flight

A golden ray skips between the blinds and marks the floor below
Lighting up the space inside, even webs reflect a glow

The physically blind cannot see this activity of light
Even though they long for just a glimpse of what is sight

As the sun sets things nocturnal are filled with such delight
Soon even those with sight are cut off in a world without light

In darkness both are blind and trust their way is right
Never sure as they move ahead struggling with all their might.

To see, to really see beyond this light so often frail
That earthly light that so often dims, our senses it does assail

The Son rises from a hand hewn tomb of stone
As the beauty of His glory shows across that ashen dome

Holy light now fills the earth so everyone can see
The right from wrong, the good from bad, the choice that sets us free

No longer does man have to stumble on things he cannot perceive
He has Christ, the true living light, and that he MUST RECEIVE!
