Family Service Returns

It's back with a bang. The popular Family Service featuring the superb Junior Choir under the tutorage of Joan Dempsey returns on Sunday 20th September. The theme this month will be 'Looking with New Eyes' and Karen would love to hear from anyone of any age who would like to take part in prayers, reading, music or to welcome everyone. The more the merrier.

Exhibition of Portraits

There will be an exhibition of Charabanc Portraits by Dermot Cranny at Kilcrouney Furniture (exit 7 off the N11) on September 18, 19 and 20 between 7 pm and 9 pm (Friday and Saturday) and 10 am to 5 pm (Sunday).

Confirmation 2016

Is there someone in your family who would like to be confirmed this time round? We're currently taking names in the Parish Office of those who want to be confirmed and who are committed to take part in Confirmation classes starting in October. Contact William or Karen to register interest.

Delayed Start For Some Clubs

Due to problems with levels in the floor in the main hall at the Parish Centre, some clubs will have to postpone their start date by a week this season. Only those clubs and organisations which use the main hall will be affected while the wooden floor is taken up, the sub-floor re-levelled and the floor re-laid. "We apologise for the inconvenience," commented

Karen Reynolds, Parish Administrator, "but we hope that everyone understands the importance of having the floor in the best condition possible. While the floor is fine at the moment for dancing, etc, it isn't level enough for some activities such as bowling. We've chosen a week which hopefully will inconvenience the fewest possible."

Churchyard Wall At Newcastle

Wondering why the wall to the right of Newcastle Church steps is embellished with orange mesh? Unfortunately it seems that there is a chance that the wall could fall. An engineer has stated that this is a possibility and so the Parish has to take every precaution to protect the public. There is no definite time scale for such a disaster, but the Parish will undertake works to repair the wall in due course.

Are you 65+ and living alone?

Would you like to be contacted on a regular basis for a chat with a friendly member of our HOMELink team?

We can also organise minor repairs, garden maintenance, alarm pendants, guide rails for fall prevention and can share other useful information and advice with you.

Exciting Times At

Tuesday 1st September is going to be a very busy day at Castle Kidz. Not only does the After-School re-open after the Summer break, but the new Playschool also opens for the first time. The After-School has been a great success, growing from an initial start with three children to the present number of sixteen of varying ages. In fact there are only a very few slots left in the afternoon schedule.

The Playschool is opening with five pre-schoolers, with a further two booked in to start after Christmas. These little ones have already met at a Teddy Bears Picnic held on a lovely afternoon at Castle Kidz. This was also an opportunity for the parents to meet each other and the staff team.

Ruth O'Toole has managed Castle Kidz After-School for the past year and her role now expands to include managing the Playschool. Christine Reboul-Geraghty will join her on the team to run the Playschool. Karen Reynolds is responsible for managing all administration and financial functions for Castle Kidz from the Parish Office.

As one of our pre-schoolers, Ethan, needs a little extra help we will be welcoming Dawn to the team. She will be solely responsible for Ethan and has been recruited by Enable Ireland.

It was a busy time preparing for the opening of the Playschool. The printer in the office was nearly on meltdown churning out 40 policies, various notices, contracts, handbooks, etc. New units were installed in the room to allow for extra storage, and artificial grass was laid in the outdoor area which is surrounded by a very colourful fence painted by our caretaker, Sean.

We're very happy to welcome Freya, Ethan, Noah, Harry and Selim to Castle Kidz Playschool.

Congratulations to Victor and Emma, and Simon and Majella. We wish you many years of happiness in your new lives together.

The Word may come through preaching and teaching, through personal witness in word or song, or through study and meditation but it always comes (if we are receptive) with that power to renew us.

This is why the believer must spend time daily with the Bible, reading and meditating, and why the Word must be an important part of public worship.

What's Happening in CALARY

Music in Calary

On Sunday 20 September, Bewley's Café Theatre and the Delmaine String Quartet will present "Love and War - Words and Music from the Western Front during World War 1". The Delmaine Quartet will perform a varied programme, featuring the letters of Artillery Officer, Eric Appleby, to his Athlone sweetheart, Phyllis Kelly. This moving correspondence records the discomforts, horrors, banalities and humour of trench life as Eric yearns to be back with his beloved in a world at peace.

Threaded through this extraordinary love story are some of the great works from the famous generation of World War One soldier poets and composers, as well as works by Bach, Ravel, Dvorak and Schubert.

The concert begins at 8 pm and this event includes an optional supper, which will be served at 6.30 pm. This evening will be a special fund raiser for the work of Sister Mary Killeen's rehab centre in Mukuru, Nairobi.

On Saturday October 10 at 8 pm, Moya O'Grady, David O'Doherty, Geraldine O'Doherty, and Edel O'Brien will perform works for cello, violin, harp and voice for Calary's Harvest weekend.

To book tickets or for more information on these events, please email Derek at derekneilson@eircom.net or phone John on (01) 2818146.

What Goes On at... Bible Club

So you're thinking you might like to try out Bible Club but you're worried that you might be expected to be some sort of a theological expert, ask super-intelligent questions and have a generally pious demeanour? Well here's a short description of what happens at a typical Bible Club evening.

We meet in the sitting room at the Parish Centre at 8pm on the second and fourth Tuesdays in the month. Not everyone turns up every time. It's perfectly fine to drop in and out as you want.

We start with a bit of a chat about everything and anything, accompanied by cheese and crackers, grapes, crisps, and a glass of wine (red and white) or a soft drink.

Then someone says a prayer—that's someone who is happy to do it; we don't force anyone to do anything. I personally am useless at praying out loud off the cuff. I don't mind if I'm prepared. After that somebody will read the passage which we are about to discuss, and then I throw out questions to kickstart a discussion.

Sometimes it seems that everyone has an opinion and sometimes only a few have anything to say. Every opinion, question and viewpoint is taken seriously and no one is made to feel that they are right or wrong. That's not to say that it's all serious stuff. Some of the funniest moments I've had have been at the Bible Club. We've had some rare comments!

After we've interpreted the passage to death, and hopefully each of us has found new meaning from it by listening to others, we light some candles and have a short time of prayer, silent or spoken. After that I give the passage to read for the next meeting.

Then it's time to put on the kettle and break out coffee, tea and some sort of bad-for-you sweet things, and have another chat. It's all over by 9.30 (or on a really interesting evening it might be a bit later).

You would be very welcome to come and give it a try. It's well worth the effort and I think we have all gained from the experience. I firmly believe that exploring what it means to be a Christian does not have to be dull. And we're all really nice!

So what are you waiting for? Next meeting is on Tuesday 22nd September at 8pm.

Karen

The Other Side (Author Unknown)

A sick man turned to his doctor, as he was leaving the room after paying a visit, and said, "Doctor, I am afraid to die. Tell me what lies on the other side."

"Very quietly the doctor said, "I don't know."

"You don't know?" the man said. "You, a Christian man, do not know what is on the other side?"

The doctor was holding the handle of the door, on the other side of which came a sound of scratching and whining. As he opened the door, a dog sprang into the room and leaped on him with an eager show of gladness.

Turning to the patient, the doctor said, "Did you notice my dog? He's never been in this room before. He didn't know what was inside. He knew nothing except that his master was here, and when the door opened, he sprang in without fear."

"I know little of what is on the other side of death," the doctor continued, "but I do know one thing: I know my Master is there, and that is enough. And when the door opens, I shall pass through with no fear, but with gladness." -

Starting another year, and by that I mean getting into gear after the long summer, is a daunting time for many people. Starting school, new classes, new schools, universities or colleges, and perhaps new work opportunities are some of the things very important to our younger people.

As Rector I always feel challenged by the great tasks presented to me in ministry. I mean that in a positive way. We are presented with every age group and ability, people with very close ties to the church, and some with only slender connections. We have the Christmas and Easter people, the occasional service people i.e. baptisms, confirmations marriages and funerals. We have some who join clubs or organisations and we have those who enter into as many things as possible including Sunday worship.

I sincerely ask you to have a think about your commitment to your Parish. Your involvement bring a real encouragement to those who work to provide the various things on offer and your contributions are really important to our community.

If each of us decided to make a real effort to contribute more by way of attendance these parishes would be transformed.

Let's together look forward to a good year and decide to have a serious think about our priorities and commitment.

William

God's Garden By Robert Frost

God made a beatous garden
With lovely flowers strown,
But one straight, narrow pathway
That was not overgrown.
And to this beauteous garden
He brought mankind to live,
And said: "To you, my children,
These lovely flowers I give.
Prune ye my vines and fig trees,
With care my flowerets tend,
But keep the pathway open
Your home is at the end."

Then came another master,
Who did not love mankind,
And planted on the pathway
Gold flowers for them to find.
And mankind saw the bright flowers,
That, glitt'ring in the sun,
Quite hid the thorns of av'rice
That poison blood and bone;
And far off many wandered,
And when life's night came on,
They still were seeking gold flowers,
Lost, helpless and alone.

O, cease to heed the glamour
That blinds your foolish eyes,
Look upward to the glitter
Of stars in God's clear skies.
Their ways are pure and harmless
And will not lead astray,
Bid aid your erring footsteps
To keep the narrow way.
And when the sun shines brightly
Tend flowers that God has given
And keep the pathway open
That leads you on to heaven.

Be strong and take heart,
all you who hope in the Lord.

Psalm 31:24

Q&A

Question

This is a question which occurs to me every time I attend a service of Holy Communion. During the Gloria we refer to “Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father” and later in the Nicene Creed we state that “We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ the only Son of God”

How do we know that Jesus was/is the only son of God? Should we not say that he is the only human son of God? Or the only son who took human form? Surely we can't have the arrogance to say that we know that God has no other eternal sons in heaven or on another planet in a distant universe?

Answer

In Christianity God is addressed as the Father, in part because of his active interest in human affairs, in the way a human father might take an interest in his children. In general the title father signifies God's role as life giver, the authority and powerful protector.

We have two aspects to consider and both are different.

1. Jesus is described in scripture as ‘the eternal son of the father’ or ‘eternally begotten of the father’ as in the Nicene creed. No other living being can be called eternal’. In this sense the second person of the trinity is unique and no other person or being was active in creation.
2. Jesus is described as the Son of God when born in Bethlehem. This was not the beginning of Christ but was ‘God incarnate’ God in flesh. The perfect begotten son. No other person or being can claim this position because he came as the perfect sacrifice and had a particular work to do. Scripture says his sacrifice was a once off, never to be repeated, event. So as far as humanity is concerned the sonship of Jesus in this sense is never repeated.

As to whether God has other sons in distant planets I think scripture does not address specifically. But John 3:16, the most well-known verse in the New Testament, “For God so loved the world he gave his only begotten Son ...” This would seem to imply that there is only one begotten son. Christians are referred to as sons of God as are angels.

JESUS AND THE MIGRANTS

A recent BBC Songs of Praise programme was broadcast from a refugees' makeshift church in Calais. St Michael's is a ramshackle affair, made of corrugated iron and canvas, with a wooden cross affixed to the front. It was built over a weekend by volunteers. Images of Christ and the Virgin Mary are held in place with duct tape

Hundreds of people worship there. They are chiefly Ethiopian and Eritrean Christians desperate enough to flee their homeland who are now stuck in Calais. One of the men who helped build the church said "our church is designed for those who want to thank God for their lives and to pray for the future...."

These unwanted, despised men, women and children have nothing. They're not even thought of by some as people. They are just a human mass of "migrants", not even worthy of the word "refugees" and have been called a "swarm" by some furious people. I'm not furious at all. I am extremely moved, that's what I am..... I am delighted that a BBC religious programme is striving to keep itself relevant and appears not only to be familiar with the teachings of Christ but keen to follow them - because, of course, were He to appear tomorrow he would not be heading for the prosperous suburbs of our cities. I fail to imagine that there exist people who call themselves Christian and fail this fairly central point. We are people and so are these refugees. They are not faceless and amorphous mass. They are human beings. They have nothing. We can at least give the benefit of our decency.

Catholic Neighbour Preaches at C of I Rector's Institution

Archbishop Michael Jackson instituted the Revd Ruth Noble as the new Rector of Crumlin and Chapelizod on Friday August 28th at St Mary's Church, Crumlin. The preacher was Fr Michael Murphy, PP Mountmellick. A native of Co Wicklow, Rutj (nee Jackson) went to secondary school in King's Hospital, Dublin and graduated from Business Studies in DCU. After a year in Birmingham, she moved to Northern Ireland as a member of the community at the Christian Renewal Centre, Rostrevor, Co Down and then to the Queen's University Chaplaincy in Belfast.

Ruth was ordained in 2002 for a curacy in St Mark's, Portadown. In 2005 she moved to Blarney, Co Cork and, while there, completed a Masters Degree focusing on growing churches in the Republic of Ireland. She has been Rector of Mountmellick Group of Parishes since 2010. Ruth and her husband, Alan (a native of Belfast) are looking forward to the move to Dublin. She succeeds the Revd Adrienne Galligan who became the Rector of Rathfarnham in January.

New Look PINS

Hope you like it—it's the new look PINS! For some time we have been hoping to develop PINS into an interesting little magazine with various bits and pieces to attract the attention of various age groups and tastes.

You are invited to contribute a story, an article, an experience, a news item, a request for prayer or a question. If you would like a letters page then drop Karen a line. We will always reserve the right to edit, but hope to broaden our appeal by having something for most tastes.

As a community it is important to get to know each other and one way to do this is to let us know what you are up to in PINS. Maybe a holiday, some great book you have just read or a particular experience you've had. We'd love to hear about it!

We all have questions to ask. Why not contribute to our Q and A section in PINS. You might not always get an answer but we will do our best.

A new command I give you: love one another.
As I have loved you, so you must love one another.
By this everyone will know that you are my disciples,
if you love one another.
John 13:34,35

China honours Christian missionary and Olympic athlete Eric Liddell

British Olympic champion, devout Christian and prisoner of war Eric Liddell, who famously chose his faith over competing in a championship race, has been honoured with a statue in his native China.

After refusing to run in the heats on a Sunday, for his favoured distance, the men's 100 metres, Liddell could still compete in the men's 400 metres at the 1924 Summer Olympics in Paris, which he won.

The British educated athlete who was nicknamed 'the flying Scotsman' and born in Tianjin, returned to China in 1925 to serve as a missionary teacher, where he mostly remained until his death in 1945, in a Japanese civilian internment camp.

On Monday, the marble sculpture of Liddell, captured in mid-stride, was unveiled in Tianjin. The statue was revealed in front of his daughters, the internment camp's remaining survivors and the actor Joseph Fiennes, who is due to play to play him in The Last Race, which has just finished filming in China.

Liddell's Olympic training and racing, and the religious convictions that influenced him, were first depicted in the Oscar-winning 1981 film Chariots of Fire, in which he is portrayed by fellow Scot Ian Charleson.

"It's one thing to preach Bible study or whatever, but it's another to actually live your beliefs under conditions like being in an internment camp," said Fiennes at Monday's unveiling.

Liddell, who also played rugby for Scotland, took risks by smuggling medical supplies through the barbed wire to try to treat the 2,000 other citizens of Allied countries imprisoned with him. Survivors say that he dedicated himself tirelessly to breaking down cliques and educating internees, mirroring his earlier work as a teacher in Tianjin.
